MAO AND STALIN TALK ON COMMUNIZING
ALL ASIA, RETAINING FRIENDSHIP AGREEMENT

MAO, STALIN PLAN TO COMMUNIZE ALL ASIA -- Kung-shang Jih-pao, 10 Jan 50

Taiwan, 8 January -- According to Premier Yen Hsi-shan, reports received from KMT underground agents in Pei-p'ing, reveal that Mao and Stalin are now conspiring in Moscow to Communize all Asia. Yen asserted that the two men are now formulating plans first to consolidate the CCP regime in China, after which arms and ammunition are to be directed to other Communist centers in Asia to aid in the overthrow of existing governments and the establishment of Communist-controlled ones.

Yen also stated that Mao has requested Stalin to send 50,000 Soviet secret agents to China to aid in establishing contacts between the Cominform and fellow travelers in Asia. The principal duty of these agents is to eliminate the US and Britain from the China market, he said.

Other plans being formulated by these two men, Yen reported, include the establishment of headquarters at Kuang-chou and K'un-ming to maintain close contact with the Communist parties in Southeast Asia; assist the 500,000 Hindu Communists in India to win over the remaining Hindu population to the Communist camp; expand underground activities in peaceful countries of Asia to undermine the existing governments; and establish integrated communications networks between Chinese and Southeast Asian Communist parties.

1945 AGREEMENT MAY REMAIN IN EFFECT -- Hsin-sheng Wan-pac, 8 Jan 50

Moscow, 7 January (UP) -- It is generally believed by informed circles in Moscow that the Sino-Soviet Friendship Agreement concluded by Chiang Kai-shek and the Soviet Union in 1945 will remain in effect for the most part with only minor revisions. This belief is based on comments made by Mao shortly after his arrival in Moscow.

Moscow circles are saying that the negotiations between Mao Tse-tung and Soviet officials are nearing completion.

TASS CORRESPONDENTS INTERVIEW MAO -- Wen-hui Pao, 4 Jan 50

Pao-p'ing, 2 January (NCNA) -- At a press conference held on 2 January in Moscow with TASS correspondents, Mao Tse-tung discussed present conditions in China, the duration of his stay in Moscow, and the discussions to be held with the Soviet officials, as follows:

1. Military operations in China were progressing very favorably in accordance with plans. Economically, the various industries of China were being converted to peacetime production.
2. He expected to remain in Moscow for several weeks depending on how soon the various discussions could be concluded.
3. The most important discussion will be the Sino-Soviet Friendship Agreement. Next in importance will be the conclusion of an agreement for a loan that the People's Republic of China is seeking from the Soviet Union, and finally discussion of the trade agreement to be drawn up between the two nations.
